THE FOUR-WAY TEST

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

One of the most widely printed and quoted statements of business ethics in the world is the Rotary 4-Way Test. It was created by Rotarian Herbert J. Taylor in 1932 when he was asked to take charge of a company that was facing bankruptcy. Taylor looked for a way to save the struggling company mired in depression-caused financial difficulties. He drew up a 24-word code of ethics for all employees to follow in their business and professional lives. The 4-Way Test became the guide for sales, production, advertising and all relations with dealers and customers, and the survival of the company is credited to this simple philosophy. Herb Taylor became President of Rotary International in 1954-55. The 4-Way Test was adopted by Rotary in 1943 and has been translated into more than a hundred languages and published in thousands of ways. Here it is in English:

"Of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the Truth?

Is it Fair to all concerned?

Will it build goodwill and better friendships?

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?"

CANDIDATE'S STATEMENT

- I, the undersigned, being familiar with the requirements for, and conditions of, membership as detailed in this document and contained in the Statement of Purpose, the Statement of Rules, the Constitution and By-laws, hereby express an interest in seeking Active Membership of the Rotary Club Of Melbourne Inc.
