

THE ROTARY CLUB OF MELBOURNE

MONASH MEDAL 2012

General Sir John Monash is the most significant Australian for his professional, military and community leadership and service before, during and after WW1.

Leadership, Integrity and Service, core values of Rotary, integral in the life of Sir John Monash, are the criteria for selecting the Monash Medal recipient.

Awarded to

Jeffrey V Rosenfeld AM

For his outstanding Leadership, Integrity and Service, contributing to the Australian community and beyond throughout his career as a leading international surgeon, researcher, clinician, military surgeon, humanitarian and advocate to reduce traumatic brain injury and landmine injuries.

Presented by:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Clive R Weeks".

Clive R Weeks
President 2012/13